Helpful Hints and Suggestions

- Your German will be tired from the trip. He/she will need to get acclimated, so don't plan too much for the first few evenings.
- Explaining how the shower works, showering schedules, other household appliances and "way things work". As there may be some differences.
- Part of the exchange is experiencing cultural differences, but you may want to have some familiar foods. Sometimes they eat cold cuts and cheese with bread. You might communicate ahead of time if there is some food preferences.
- The process of getting to know a person from another country is an exciting and fun process...it is a process and may seem slow, but will happen and is very rewarding.
